WORK OF BAPTISTS.

Spirited Attack Made on Sunday School Lessons.

St. Louis, Mo., May 19.—With a few slight changes, the various subsidiary boards of the Southern Baptist Convention were renewed with the re-election of a majority of the 1912 officers and members at Saturday's session of the convention.

The day was marked by several radical proposals regarding the Sunday school lesson leaflets and other matters of unusual interest to delegates and their constituents. A movement for the establishment of an educational board by the convention was started, but no action will be taken until next year.

In an attack on the Sunday School lesson leaflet prepared by the international lessons committee, representing sixteen Protestant denominations, speakers session urged the withdrawal of the Baptists from the committee and the publication of their own individual Sunday school lessons.

Dr. Tull, of Paducah, who was designated to deliver the memorial, declared the question of Sunday school leaflets the most vital of denominational issues. In pointing out what he termed the failures of the "international lessons," Dr. Tull said:

"The present system has proved by results to be doctrinally inadequate. It does not enlighten the pupil. It has no intellectual incentives. It gives no place for test of Bible scholarship. It affords no uniformity of doctrine. It is to blame for most Sunday school problems, such as attendance, interest and idleness. It does not make great teachers. It lacks teaching matter and it lacks system."

The convention chose Nashville, Tenn., as the next place of meeting, and fixed May 12, 1914, as the date. Rev. L. D. Warren, of Atlanta, made a report on the $1,000,000 fund which is being raised for the support of poor churches in the South. He said that more than a fourth of the amount had been raised.

ACCUSED OF HERESY.

Reports to be Made to Presbyterian Assembly Today.

Atlanta, Ga., May 19.—The report of the special committee on the Union Theological Seminary, of New York City, will be made to the Northern Presbyterian Assembly today and will bring the heresy questions to the front.

The faculty of the seminary will be charged in two minority reports, with holding beliefs contrary to the Presbyterian faith, denial of the Bible's inspiration and the supernatural divinity of Christ being charged to them. The writings of Dr. Wm. Adams Brown, one of the professors of the institution, will be quoted in the minority report as sufficient cause for the assembly's repudiating the institution. Dr. Francis Brown, head of the seminary, as well as Dr. Wm. Adams Brown will be in the assembly when the reports are made, they being members of the delegation.
